

Two Information-Packed Homeschooling Seminars!

If you're a new, prospective or veteran homeschool parent, these seminars are for you!

Introduction to Homeschooling and Homeschooling High School

Janice Hedin is a longtime homeschool parent and advocate whose children's first day of "school" was college. She lobbied and helped craft our homeschool law. She served in leadership roles for the Washington Homeschool Org. Advocacy Committee and board. She is co-presenter of the popular homeschool qualifying course, OPTions for Parent Teachers.

Where: Benton REA Community Room, 6095 W. Van Giesen, West
Richland, WA 99353.

Date: March 31, 2012, Saturday

Time: Introduction to Homeschooling: 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon
Homeschooling High School: 1:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Cost: $40.00 for each seminar. $70.00 if you register for both

Introduction to Homeschooling:

- Support for you on a local, state, national and internet level
- Washington State Home-Based Instruction Law
- Methods of homeschooling
- Low cost and no cost sources for resources
- Take-home resource packet and more.

Homeschooling High School:

- Why homeschooling leads to admissions to the best colleges
- Credits, transcripts, portfolios, diplomas, graduation
- Tackling higher level subjects
- GED, Running Start, teens in the workplace
- Take-home resource packet and more.

Please pre-register. Send registration fee, payable to Janice M. Hedin, tell me which seminar(s) you plan to attend to: Janice M. Hedin, 23923 SE 202 St. Maple Valley, WA 98038. No childcare is available. Babes in arms and teens only please.

For more information contact Janice at 425-432-9805, elcamino6486@msn.com or locally, contact Amber Mitchell 509-392-4798 amber.a.mitchell@gmail.com